He was scheduled to appear in magistrate court Friday afternoon.

There was no telephone listing for Junkins in the Shinnston area. His attorney, Shawn Fluharty, was out of the office and did not immediately return a telephone message.

AFT sues school district over part-timers

MORGANTOWN — The American Federation of Teachers is suing the Monongalia County Board of Education and Superintendent Frank Devono over what it calls improper hiring practices.

Media outlets say the petition in Circuit Court asks a judge to stop the board from ignoring the law and remove the workers.

Devono says the hiring of 30 part-time employees was legal because they weren't regular teaching jobs.

He also says students would suffer if they're removed. The employees travel between classes and schools to help children struggling with particular subjects.

The lawsuit says the workers cost the district $653,426 this fall.

The union argues the jobs should have been posted internally for at least five days. They also say the district ignored a process that ensures the best-qualified workers are hired.

Groups want to refile Mon Power case

CLARKSBURG — Legal wrangling continues over whether environmentalists have the legal standing to sue Mon Power over arsenic discharges from a coal-ash dump at its Albright power plant.

Mon Power wants a federal judge in Clarksburg to deny the Sierra Club and others the ability to refile their lawsuit and name specific individuals who have been harmed.

Mon Power says they allege only hypothetical harm by offering two plaintiffs — a hiker and a kayaker.

It says neither person has had

Special prosecutor named in officer's case

WHEELING — A special prosecutor has been named in the case of a fired Wheeling police officer charged with sexual assault.

Assistant Hancock County prosecutor David F. Cross has been assigned to the case of Matthew Kotson after Ohio County prosecutor Scott Smith recused himself.

Kotson was arrested earlier this month on charges of sexually assaulting two women.

WTOV-TV in Steubenville, Ohio, reported that Kotson remains free on bond. He faces a Dec. 20 preliminary hearing in Ohio County Magistrate Court.

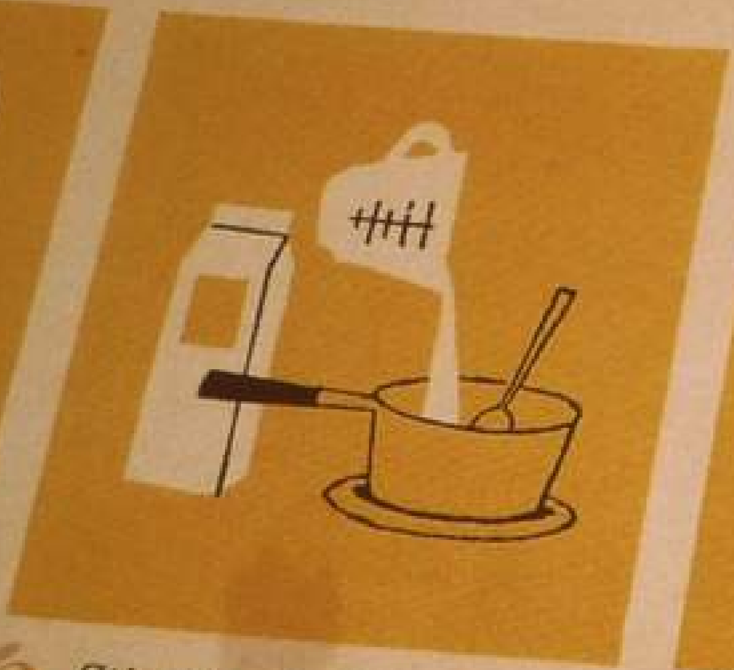
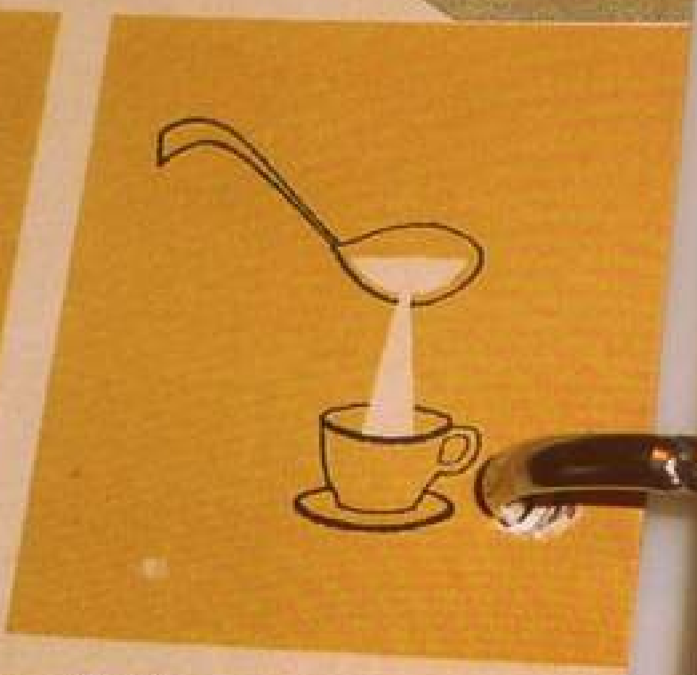
ix cocoa, salt, sugar in cepan. Mix in water; k and stir 3 minutes



2 Stir in milk. Heat just to boiling. Stop! Remove pan from the heat immediately



3 Ladle carefully into cups. Serve hot as hot! This makes 6 servings

Serve each steaming cup of cocoa with a marshmallow whitecap and a collar of foam. To build up bubbles, beat the cocoa hard with an egg beater before ladling it into the cups. Pass around a plate of crunchy cookies

MATERIALS

Goose quill or any other good-sized feather, about 10 inches long*
Small knife or scissors
Cutting board
Straight pin
Ink (See pages 8 and 9 to make your own.)
Piece of felt, 5 inches square

7. Hold your pen at a slant to practice writing. Experiment by holding the pen at different angles and using different amounts of pressure.

8. When your quill pen runs dry, dip the nib into the ink again, blot the excess ink onto the felt, and continue writing.

9. If the nib wears down, follow steps 3 through 5 … Your pen will be new again.

ADVENT & CHRISTMAS CAROLS

O come, O come, Emmanuel
O come, O come, Emmanuel
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

O come, Thou Rod of Jesse, free
Thine own from Satan's tyranny
From depths of Hell Thy people save
And give them victory o'er the grave
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.

People, Look East
People, look east the time is near
Of the crowning of the year.
Make your house fair as you are able,
Trim the hearth and set the table.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Guest is on the way.

Furrows, be glad though earth is bare,
One more seed is planted there.
Give up your strength the seed to nourish,
That in course the flower may flourish.
People, look east and sing today:
Love, the Rose is on the way.

Birds, though you long have ceased to buil
Guard the nest that must be filled.
Even the hour when wings are frozen
God for fledging time has chosen.

HEART-SHAPED CAKES

> Those stockings weren't empty yet. Mary and Laura pulled out two small packages. They unwrapped them, and each found a little heart-shaped cake. Over their delicate brown tops was sprinkled white sugar. The sparkling grains lay like tiny drifts of snow.
> The cakes were too pretty to eat. Mary and Laura just looked at them. But at last Laura turned hers over, and she nibbled a tiny nibble from underneath, where it wouldn't show. And the inside of that little cake was white!
> It had been made of pure white flour, and sweetened with white sugar.
> LITTLE HOUSE ON THE PRAIRIE

With so many kinds of cookies and cakes available today we can't help but be moved by the thrill Laura and Mary felt at receiving one white sugar cake apiece.

What Ma must have made, without eggs or baking powder, was something between sugar cookies and shortbread. Although there was milk on hand, we've assumed that lard, rather than butter, would have been used for baking. (You can substitute butter for lard in the ingredients below if you prefer.) We have also increased the quantity to our customary six servings and substituted a baking sheet and range oven for a bake-oven and fireplace.

For six heart-shaped cakes you will need:

White flour, $1\frac{1}{2}$ cups unbleached all-purpose, plus extra for dusting
Granulated sugar, $\frac{1}{3}$ cup plus extra for dusting
Baking soda, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon
Ground nutmeg, a pinch
Lard, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup chilled, plus extra for pan
Cultured buttermilk, $\frac{1}{3}$ cup

Bowl, 2-quart; pastry surface and rolling pin; baking sheet; blue tissue paper (optional)

Preheat oven to 425°F. In the bowl mix flour, sugar, baking soda, and nutmeg. With cold fingers (dipped in cold water and dried) rub the cold lard into the dry ingredients. Make a well in the center, add buttermilk, and work with one hand into a dough that can be rolled out.

Dust rolling surface with flour. Shape the dough into a ball and roll it out into an 8-inch circle. With a table knife dipped in flour cut the circle in half, then the halves in thirds, to produce six equal wedges. Shape each wedge into a heart.

Grease baking sheet and place hearts on it so they do not touch. Bake for about 15 minutes, until cakes are puffy and nicely browned. Remove from oven and sprinkle tops immediately with sugar (the crystals will melt slightly and stick). When cool, eat or wrap with blue tissue paper, the traditional wrapping of white sugar crystals, for gift giving.
